Safety

Rider safety, respect for other riders and the driver, and reducing driver distractions are very important in providing all with a reliable, convenient, and safe Valpo Transit experience. To ensure that the Valpo Transit continues to run smoothly and safely to all destinations on its route, please adhere to the following Valpo Transit Rules and Safety Guidelines:

- Be courteous and respect others
- Do not smoke on the bus
- Abusive, disorderly conduct or profanity will not be tolerated. Intoxicated or disruptive passengers may be removed from the bus
- Store all articles out of the aisle
- Do not use radios, tape, CD players, or iPods unless earphones are used; keep the volume low so as not to distract others
- Leave your pets at home. Only service animals accompanying passengers with disabilities may be permitted on the bus
- Keep your head and hands inside the bus at all times
- Respect Federal Law that requires all riders to stand behind the white or yellow “STANDEE” line
- Always wait until the bus has come to a complete stop before entering or exiting
- Do not board the bus until all those exiting are off
- Wait until the bus has completely left the stop before crossing the street
- Listen to the bus driver for important announcements

Transfers

Transfers allow you to make connections to all parts of the community. Ask for a transfer as you pay your fare. Transfers are FREE. You cannot use a transfer to back track along a route you’ve already traveled. For example, if you are going north on Calumet, you cannot use the transfer for the next bus going south on Calumet.

Holiday Service

Service will not be provided on the following days:

- New Years Day
- Memorial Day
- July 4th
- Labor Day
- Thanksgiving Day
- Christmas Day
