

John Walsh Named to Valparaiso Utilities Board

John Walsh has been named to the Valparaiso Utilities Board, announced Valparaiso Mayor Matt Murphy. “We’re so pleased to have John Wash join this important board for the City. His experience in engineering and business as well as his long-term commitment to the community make him an excellent addition to the city’s leadership team,” said Mayor Murphy.

Since 1996, John Walsh has served as president of Heat Wagon, Inc. in Valparaiso and formerly served as Vice President of Walsh & Kelly Inc. He has served on the board of directors for the Porter County Community Foundation since 2013 and is currently serving as chairman. He has also been a long-term member of the Valpo Chamber and has served as a director, as well as a member of the Valparaiso Rotary and a member of the Finance Committee for St. Paul Catholic Church. Walsh has a BS in civil engineering from the University of Notre Dame and an MBA from Kellogg School of Management at Northwestern University.

The Valparaiso City Utilities Board is responsible for overseeing operations, policy and finances for the City’s Water, Wastewater, and Stormwater Divisions. Appointed by the mayor, the Board is comprised of five Valparaiso residents with backgrounds in law, business, banking and leadership. The Utilities Board meets on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month. For more information, visit Valpo.us.
