

Paul Reed Named to Valparaiso Board of Zoning Appeals

Paul Reed has been named to the Valparaiso Board of Zoning Appeals, announced Mayor Matt Murphy. “Paul Reed’s expertise in building and leadership make him an excellent addition to this essential board,” said Mayor Matt Murphy.

Paul Reed is an accomplished architect with his own firm, Paul W. Reed Architect Inc. in Valparaiso. He also served as founder and owner of IN Architects and Planners in Crown Point. A lifelong Valparaiso resident, Reed and his wife, Diana, have raised two children in the community. Paul Reed also serves as secretary for the Valparaiso Multi-Schools Building Corporation and in Lake County as Treasurer for Friends of the Memorial Parkway Inc. and as a Lake County Council appointed member to the Veterans Memorial Parkway Commission. Reed has a degree in architecture from Ball State University.

The Board of Zoning Appeals is a five-member board appointed by the mayor and empowered by state law to oversee the review of proposals for granting relief from local zoning ordinances. The BZA meets monthly on the third Tuesday of the month. For more information, visit Valpo.us.
